

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the postoffice at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 18, 1899.

Somewhat of a Liar His Ownself.

One Marcus Morarity, who is now traveling with the Julia Arthur Co., gave out an interview for the Lexington Herald, of Tuesday. In that interview he uses this language: in regard to matters in that city in 1864:

Lexington during those days was full of ex-soldiers and bounty jumpers, and the town was kept in a continual uproar by these men. They thought nothing of shooting men down in the streets and on many occasions I have attended the theatre and at the entrance have seen a man whip out his pistol and shoot down another without any seeming provocation.

Now it may be true that the city was full of "ex-soldiers and bounty jumpers," but as to the town being in a continual uproar and all that rot about shooting down men, etc., is pure and unadulterated, hard lying.

We were living in Lexington, throughout the year he speaks of, and publishing a newspaper, and we had our eyes and ears open to catch every thing that was going on; and that blood-curdling story is a fiction of the "jintleman from the State of Ohio's" imagination.

Through the whole interview there are a few grains of truth, such as the hanging of Ferguson, at the old Fair Grounds, as a spy, for we saw the poor fellow as he, and another with him, were being taken out to be hung (the wagon he was in came up Main street from the Military Prison on Short street, and went out Lime stone).

But we protest that those few grains of truth will not sanctify the whole mess of lies that the fellow puts out to create a sensation.

Civil war is bad enough, at best, but don't try to make it any worse than it was.

Sampson's Inning.

Rear Admiral Sampson has addressed a letter to Secretary of the Navy Long, in which he asks that the Secretary immediately reappoint those officers recommended for promotion and who were not confirmed by the Senate, owing to the fight between the friends of Sampson and Schley, leaving his (Sampson's) name out, as he does not wish others to suffer on his account.

This was a very unselfish thing and redounds to his credit.

New Senator.

The Legislature of Nebraska, on Wednesday of last week, elected Judge M. L. Hayward, Republican, to succeed Hon. W. V. Allen, Silver Democrat and Populist. There had been a deadlock since early in January. The same was broken on Tuesday night by the Republican factions uniting on Judge Hayward, who was their candidate for Governor and was defeated by a small fusion majority. He is said to be a very able man.

New Ads.

Read the several new advertisements in to-day's paper. They keep coming, for the people know where placing an "ad" does the most good, and, sure pop, the ROUNDABOUT gets 'em.

Confirmation Service.

On Friday evening next, at 7:30 p. m., the Rt. Rev. Lewis W. Burton, D. D., Bishop of Lexington, will visit the Church of the Ascension (Episcopal) and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation, also preaching a sermon appropriate to the occasion. The music will be rendered by the vested choir of the church. The seats at this church are all free and strangers are always heartily welcome.

Dancing Class.

Prof. Wayland Graham's dancing class, for the spring term, will begin Monday night, March 20th, at 7 o'clock.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Building Associations Have No Right to Issue Paid-Up Stock.

The Court of Appeals, Saturday, in the case of Reddick vs. Columbia Finance and Trust Company, decided that withdrawal notices do not entitle withdrawing members of Building Associations to preference when the Association is insolvent, that suits to foreclose mortgages must be brought in courts where the land is situated, and that borrowing members are entitled to credit for the value of their stock, if that value can be approximated, and not otherwise.

In the case of the Safety Building and Loan Company against Eckler, from Harrison county, the court practically held that Building Associations in Kentucky have no right to issue paid-up stock, and the decision bids fair to revolutionize the business of such companies in settling up their affairs.

Spring Millinery.

Mrs. T. J. Brislan has re-opened at her old stand, No. 225 St. Clair street, with an entirely new and complete stock of millinery. She will be glad to see all of her old customers and as many new ones as would care to call. She is now ready for the Easter trade.

Viola Allen's Literary Aspirations.

Miss Viola Allen, the "star" of Hall Caine's dramatization of his popular novel, "The Christian," has always aspired to be an author. She has said that there are two things which she would rather do than act: write a book, or be a trained nurse. She will now make her literary debut in an article which she has written for The Ladies Home Journal, reciting and explaining fully "What the Life of an Actress Means."

Very Acceptable Change in Ruling.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has issued the following modification of rules in regard to distiller's change of brands:

"Modified regulations, dated the 8th inst., do not require either the beer to be run off nor the suspension of operations upon the change of name."

Heretofore when a distiller wished to change the brand of whisky then being manufactured to another brand, as some of the plants do often, it meant lots of trouble and expense. First, notification of the proposed change must be duly made.

Following this all the "beer" in the vats must be run off, and operations entirely suspended, even to the formal closing and locking of the entrance to the distillery buildings. All work would have to cease. Then, before operations could begin anew, notice of resumption must be served. This proceeding has been required in every instance, no matter how often a distiller might want to change the name of his whisky.

Under the new ruling all this formality is done away with. A distiller can now change the names of his brands at his own pleasure, and at any time. This means a great saving to him of time, which means money, and also saves him much trouble.

The news will be warmly welcome, because it is unexpected.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. J. F. CHEENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Utah and Delaware Left With Only One Senator.

The Legislatures of the States of Utah and Delaware have adjourned without electing United States Senators. The first Legislature was Democratic and the latter Republican.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at J. W. Gayle's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Tip Top.

Moving seems to be all the go in this section of the country.

Cropping time has now come and people are very busy burning tobacco beds.

Quite a number of our people attended meeting at Antioch on Saturday night, last Sunday morning and Sunday night. Bro. Foley conducted the services.

Mr. Fred Hulette, of Eminence, visited his parents on Saturday night and Sunday last. He left for Lexington on Monday, where he will remain for some time.

Two buggies and three horses were hitched to Mr. Thos. Hulette's yard fence last Sunday afternoon. No one will doubt that Miss Mamie was at home.

Messrs Sam Moore and Ned Miles called on Misses Desdemona and Sidonia Sudduth last Sunday evening.

People keep your shoes shining and your hair in trim. Rumor says not just now, but after a while there is going to be more weddings than the folks can get ready to go to.

Quite an entertaining social was given at the home of Mrs. Belle Wright, on Friday night last. It was largely attended and enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Wright left on Sunday last for Shelby county to make that her home. Mr. Johnny Hale and family, from West Frankfort, will occupy the vacant house.

Miss Dora Moore, of this place, has returned home after a three months' visit at Louisville.

Well, as there has not been any news from Tip Top for some time, I concluded to write again. If the editor sees fit to publish this, you may hear from us again. Success to the ROUNDABOUT.

DYSPEPSIA CURED! AMERICAN DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

A Safe, Sure and Permanent Cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Catarrh of the Stomach, Flatulency, Palpitation, Fermentation, Heart Burn and Constipation.

Read the following reasons for using American Dyspepsia Tablets.

All other remedies claiming to cure indigestion and dyspepsia contain PEPsin in one of its forms, and as long as PEPsin is supplied to a weak, or even healthy stomach in the shape of medicine, nature will cease to make it, and the DYSPEPSIA will not be able to do without his "DOSE," and of course never be cured of his trouble. A stomach that will promptly digest food must make its own PEPsin and not rely upon medicine for this most important agent.

American Dyspepsia Tablets contain no PEPsin nor other PEPTIC agents, but are composed of four old and well-known vegetable remedies which, in combination, will soon effect a cure by restoring the stomach to its normal condition.

We furnish no book on the "STOMACH and its DISEASES," no ALMANAC, no prize for the LARGEST number of wrappers, but will send a trial box to any address free of cost.

AMERICAN DYSPEPSIA TABLETS are put up in 50c. packages, and are to be had at J. W. Gayle's and W. H. Averill's, or by addressing
